Faculty Awards for Excellence in Teaching/Research/Service

Details & Committee Responsibilities

Note: Nominations

The search period for Faculty Excellence Awards opens every Fall (the first Monday in November) and Nominations may be made by email to Academic Affairs, or by delivery/submission to Academic Affairs. Nominations should include a brief statement on why they have nominated this person and their connection to Jacksonville University. Nominees will receive an email from Academic Affairs alerting them that they have been nominated and may submit supporting materials by Feb 28 to become a candidate for the award. Nominees must submit a portfolio of supporting materials to accept the award.
