

the Spring 2020 Semester, the occupancy period for both new and returning students begins on January 4, 2020 and ends on April 25, 2020.

- C. On-campus housing outside the established occupancy periods is not guaranteed.
- D. On- (beginning December 14, 2019 and ending January 3, 2020) will be granted to students through a request and approval process. Students who request and receive approval for on- will receive communication from the Residential Life office notifying them of the ability to reside on-campus during that time.
- E. Residents agree to vacate their assigned room and officially check-out by the date/time the residence halls close or within 24-hours (whichever occurs first) upon:
 - 1. Loss of status as an enrolled student
 - 2. Failure to register for credit course work by the 5th day of classes
 - 3. After their last exam

Rates by Residence Hall per Semester

Residence Hall	Rate by Semester
North Hall	$4,750
Williams Hall	$4,750
Oak Hall	$4,750
Village Apartments	$4,750

Unlimited Access Dining Plans (Required for North, Williams, Oak, and Botts Residents)

2019 – 2020 Board Rates (Per Semester)

This plan is required for residents of North, Williams, Botts, and Oak Halls.

Rates by Dining Plan per Semester

Dining Plan	Rate by Semester
Unlimited Access Silver & $500 Flex per Semester	$2,530
Unlimited Access Gold & $650 Flex per Semester	$2,598
Unlimited Access Platinum & $800 Flex per Semester	$2,655

Apartment Dining Plans

Rates by Dining Plan per Semester

Dining Plan	Rate by Semester
50 Meals + $400 Flex per Semester

Supplemental Plans can be purchased by residents in addition to All Access and Apartment Dining Plans
All Dining Plans can also be purchased separately by commuter students

Payments

- A. Newly admitted students must pay the university enrollment deposit prior to obtaining access to the housing application. The university enrollment deposit is a separate fee managed
- B. Current students must meet the same requirements regarding account holds set forth by the registrar regarding holds and registering for classes in order to access the housing application.
- C. All charges from the Residential Life Office are billed to individual student accounts. Payment of fees can be arranged
- D. Once a student has picked up a room key, they are responsible for a minimum 25% charge for room and board, notwithstanding charges based on the refund schedule. Students who leave JU between the Fall and Spring semesters

- B. necessary, even once a student has already moved in. eemed
- C. The University reserves the right to consolidate vacancies at any time, including after a student has already moved in.
- D. No guarantee is made concerning the number of occupants in a room. If a vacancy occurs in a room, the remaining student(s) in that room should expect either a new occupant or to be moved into a vacant space at any time; failure to comply may result in disciplinary action. I be made to inform the resident(s) of the room, but no guarantee can be made that residents will have input or choice over the identity of additional residents.
- E. Occupancy of any room is limited to the resident(s) assigned to that room. A resident who has contracted with the University for on-campus housing may not sublet, loan, assign, rent, or transfer the contract or the space to another person. Only contracted residents may occupy the room/apartment.
- F. All moves must be authorized by appropriate University staff. Residents may have 1 room

Check-In and Check-Out

